LORETTA AADLAND WED FRIDAY AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

A beautiful double ring ceremony took place on Friday, Jan. 11th, at 3 PM at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Hankinson, when Loretta Lou Aadland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sedler of Hankinson, was united in marriage to Kenneth Gerald Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Berg of Moorhead, MN.

The bride wore a gown of white Avalcon lace and nylon tulle net over white satin. The fitted bodice was set off with lace paneling, which extended to the hemline down the front. A tiny high lace collar and long lace sleeves enhanced the beauty of the bodice. The satin ballroom length skirt was covered with two layers of tulle net. The nylon net veil encircled with Avalcon lace had a crown of lace and trimmed with tiny pearl beading. She carried her grandmother's Bible, covered with lace, and topped by yellow daffodils and blue iris with acacia and satin streamers. The bride also carried out the old tradition of carrying something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Her maid of honor, Sharon Medenwald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Medenwald, wore a ballerina length gown of rayon and net in yellow. Her bridesmaid, Janice Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Buck, wore a ballerina length gown of rayon and net in pink. Both wore cape jackets set with rhinestones to match their gowns. They carried colonial bouquets of daffodils, iris and acacia with satin streamers.

The two little flower girls were Teresa Sedler, sister of the bride and Debra Medenwald, sister of the maid of honor. They wore matching knee length dresses of rayon and net in yellow and blue and carried baskets of white pompoms and yellow daffodils.

The groom wore a charcoal gray suit. His best man was Roland Holm of Moorhead, and his attendant was Mark Uren of Moorhead. Both were dressed in charcoal suits, with carnation boutonnieres. Ushers were Clifford Larson and James Aadland.

The mothers of the bride and groom both wore navy blue dresses with pink accessories. They had corsages of baby pink roses and white pompoms. The father of the bride wore a suit of medium blue with a white carnation boutonniere.

Mr. Wm. Melchert played the pre-nuptial music and the wedding marches. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. C. Michael, pastor of the church.

The reception supper was served in the church parlors following a few social hours. The brides' table was decorated with a white tablecloth and pink bows, antique glass tiered hurricane lamps and a tiered centerpiece, which held the bride's and attendants bouquets. The beautiful wedding cake, which was baked by Mrs. Carl Krause of Sonora, was elaborately decorated with bells, gates and pink roses. A girl's quartette, consisting of Marilyn Nelson, Judy Scheller, Judy Simonson and Ramah Green, accompanied by Judy Willert, entertained during the social hours. They wore pastel formals and shoulder corsages of Jonquils. Ann Renegar cut the cake. Dixie Backer and Judy Willert poured coffee. Mrs. Richard Medenwaldt served at the bride's table. Other waitresses were Karen Gollnick, Myrna Wurl, Janice Bohn, Evonne Scheller, Faye King and Bonnie Scheller. Mary Dibbert had charge of the guest book and Mrs. James Aadland was in charge of the gift table. The bridal couple received many lovely and useful gifts.

The kitchen workers were: Mrs. August Medenwaldt, Mrs. Alfred Medenwaldt, Mrs. Mary Sander, Mrs. Clemens Buck and Mrs. William Winefeldt. The waitresses and workers wore epaulets of daffodils and white satin bows.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Berg, Mrs. Holm, Terry Bond, all of Moorhead, MN., Mrs. Nellie Myer, Mr. and Mrs. Selmer Aadland, Mrs. Helmer Moen of Sisseton, SD.; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Yust of Big Stone, SD.; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Larson of Hammer, SD.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Medenwaldt, Jr., of Lidgerwood.

Seivert's of Hankinson had charge of flower arrangements.

MEDENWALDT - AHRENS NUPTIAL VOWS WERE SPOKEN ON SATURDAY

A double ring wedding ceremony was performed on Saturday evening, Feb. 23rd, 1957, at 7:30 o'clock in the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Hankinson, when Miss Gayle Marie Medenwaldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Medenwaldt of Hankinson, became the bride of Randolph Henry Ahrens, Jr., son of Mrs. Randolph Ahrens, Sr., of New Effington, SD.

The church was decorated with lighted tapers in candelabra and lighted candles and white bows on the pews. The Rev. G. C. Michael officiated. Organist, Mrs. S. J. Backer, played Lohengrim's Wedding March and also accompanied Mrs. Charles Ahrens, sister-in-law of the groom, who sang "Bless This House" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beautiful gown of white slipper satin with net overskirt, lace fitted bodice, self covered buttons down the back to the waistline, and long Mary Stuart sleeves that came to a point at the wrist. Her bridal veil was fingertip length, edged with lace, and fell from a crown of seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a three strand pearl necklace. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of white stephanotis with baby red rose corsage inset and long satin streamers. She also carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Mrs. Kenneth Mohs, cousin of the bridegroom of Washburn, ND., acted as maid of honor. She wore a Nile green taffeta gown with net overskirt and a net fitted bodice and bolero. The bridesmaid, Velma Remore, aunt of the bride, wore a mint green taffeta gown with net overskirt, a lace fitted bodice and bolero. The Junior bridesmaid was Gloria Medenwaldt, sister of the bride. She wore a apple green gown of crystallette. They all wore white flowered headbands and carried identical bouquets of pink and green carnations. Their jewelry was three strands of pearls, gifts of the bride.

The bridegroom wore a light gray suit with white carnation boutonniere. Charles Ahrens brother of the bridegroom, was bestman and Lowell Ahrens, cousin of the groom, was groomsman. They wore white carnation boutonnieres and black handkerchiefs, gifts of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Glen Medenwaldt, brother of the bride and Ray Ahrens, cousin of the bridegroom. They wore white carnation boutonnieres and black handkerchiefs, gifts of the groom.

Flower girls were Beverly Ann Remore, cousin of the bride and Patty Setterlund, friend of the couple. They both wore gowns alike of white taffeta with three tier net overskirt and net yoke. They wore headbands and carried bouquets of green, pink and white carnations. Little Keith Ebel, friend of the couple, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother also wore blue and a corsage of pink roses. The grandmothers wore corsages of white mums and the granddads white carnation boutonnieres.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the church parlors, with approximately 150 guests in attendance. The bridal table was decorated in yellow and green, with a beautiful four tier wedding cake, with a miniature bride and groom and bells, the centerpiece. Table waitresses were Diane Buck, Diane Prochnow, Janice Buck, Fay and Bonnie Brunkhorst. Kitchen helpers were Mrs. Jerry Medenwaldt, Mrs. Mary Sander, Mrs. Clemens Buck and Mrs. August Kuehl.

Miss Cecelia Reinke, close friend of the bride, had charge of the guest book. Miss Renae Reinke and Mrs. Lowell Ahrens were in charge of the gift table. Mrs. Chester Setterlund poured. Mrs. Leonard Prochnow cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Clemens Buck served the ice cream.

For travel, Mrs. Ahrens wore a blue velvet dress with baby red roses as her corsage. After a week's trip to parts of Minnesota, the couple will be at their farm home near New Effington, SD. The bride is a graduate of the Hankinson High School and was employed in Minneapolis. Mr. Ahrens has served in the Air Force and is now a prominent young farmer.

The bride's dress was made by her mother. She wore a blue pillbox hat trimmed with pearls and gloves matching her gown. Her jewelry was pearl earrings. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses. She carried out the traditional "something...old, new, borrowed and blue."

Her only attendant as bridesmaid was a friend, Connie Steffens of Fairmount. She wore a peach crystalette gown styled similar to the bride's which had been made by Mrs. Arden Eide. She wore a matching peach pillbox hat, white gloves and pearl earrings. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

The bestman was Guy Whitehead of Fairmount, brother of the bride. Ushers were Allan Keidel of Morris, MN., friend of the couple and Roger Neff of Hollister, CA., cousin of the groom. The men wore white carnation boutonnieres.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Whitehead wore a navy blue dress with red and white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Neff, wore a light blue dress with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white roses.

After the ceremony a wedding reception was given by the brides parents in the church parlors with 75 guests present. The centerpiece of the reception table was a three tiered wedding cake topped with a cascade bouquet resembling the one carried by the bride. The all white cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Arden Eide and Mrs. Clarence Dyke, friends of the bride. The cake was cut and served by the bride's friend, Jacqueline Eide. Stella Whitehead, aunt of the bride poured. Betsy Sikorski, friend of the bride had charge of the guest book and Nancy Klund, cousin of the bride, presided at the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of the Fairmount High School with the Class of 1955, and is employed at Dyke's Cafe and will continue her position there until school is out.

The groom is a graduate of McClusky High School and the Valley City State Teachers College at Valley City. He is principal and teacher in the Fairmount High School.

The couple will leave on a wedding trip to Canada after school is out. They will make their home in Fairmount after Sept. 1958 when the groom will resume his teaching duties here.

HARDIE-STREETER WED

LAMARS NEWS....Miss Norma Ann Hardie, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Hardie of rural Fairmount, became the bride of Mr. Charles L. Streeter, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fibranz of Wheaton, Saturday evening, May 10th, at 7:30 C.S.T.

The double ring ceremony was performed by candlelight, at the Methodist Church in Fairmount, with Rev. Charles L. Bryan officiating. The chancel was decorated with baskets of spring flowers, tulips, flowering almond, bridal wreath and rose of Sharon. Two candelabra held the white candles at the altar.

The traditional wedding music was played by Miss Beverly Griggs, at the organ. She wore an apricot colored gown with a white and yellow corsage. Miss Laurel Hardie and Mrs. Rodney Voss, cousins of the bride sang, "O Perfect Love" and "Wedding Prayer." They wore identical gowns of peach and apricot with white and yellow corsages.

The bride was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white satin, with a Bateau neckline, trimmed with Venice type lace. The waist featured a cummerbund which ended in long streamers in the back. A row of tiny buttons extended below the waist in back. The sleeves were long and ended with a point over the wrist, held by tiny buttons. The hoop skirt was gathered at the side hip line with the same lace found at the neckline. She wore a fingertip veil of white nylon net falling from a white lace headpiece. She carried a bouquet of tiny pink roses on top of a white Bible, rosebuds and green leaves were gathered in white ribbon streamers falling from the bouquet.

The bride chose her cousin, Miss Janet Stelton of Webster, SD., as her maid of honor. Miss Stelton wore a blue gown of net over taffeta, with a small taffeta jacket. Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Wayne Osborn, sister of the groom and Miss Sharon Scheiddeger, friend of the bride. Both wore gowns of pink net over taffeta, with pink net stoles. The attendants gowns were of ballerina length. They carried stick bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Streeter chose as his bestman, his brother, Mr. Harold Streeter of Hibbing, MN. Groomsmen were: Mr. Walter Hardie, brother of the bride and Mr. Virgil Tobeck, friend of the groom. Little Wallace Hardie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardie and cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer. He wore a white suit with bow tie and carried a heart shaped white satin pillow with the rings resting on top.

Ushers were: Mr. Fredrick Voss of Rosholt, uncle of the bride and Mr. Alvin Jost of New Effington, friend of the groom. They wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's gift from the groom was a three strand pearl necklace with earrings to match. The bride's gift to the groom was a necktie and clasp. The bride's gifts to her attendants were earrings with pearl centers. The groom's gifts to his attendants were beautiful white neckties.

Little Linda Kaiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kaiser and niece of the groom, served as the flower girl. She wore a gown of white nylon, with a hoop skirt, featuring a gathered scallop caught up with flower buds. She wore a white headpiece and carried a basket of sweetpeas. The bride's mother wore a navy blue princess style dress with a short navy jacket. It featured a white lace collar. She had white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a navy dress with navy and white jacket and white accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

Mrs. Nick Kaiser, sister of the groom had charge of the guest book. Miss Janice Walter and Miss Loa Spear had charge of the gift table. A reception was given by the bride's parents in the church parlors with Miss Harriet Astrup and Mrs. Leonard Osborn as hostesses.

The beautiful four tier wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Leander Wawers. The cake was topped with a small white Bible and a bouquet of tiny roses to match the flowers and Bible carried by the bride. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Francis Renelt of Rosholt, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Claire Hermes, friend of the bride. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Donald Voss of Rosholt and Mrs. Grover Voss of Minneapolis, both aunts of the bride. Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Fairmount Methodist Church were in charge of serving refreshments from the kitchen.

After a short honeymoon trip, for which the bride chose a blue street dress, the young couple will be at home on the Claire Hermes farm south of Fairmount for the summer.

HELEN JOY WIPPERMAN WED SEPTEMBER 26

A pretty fall wedding was solemnized at Immanuel Lutheran Church at Hankinson, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 26th, when Miss Helen Joy Wipperman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Wipperman, Jr., Hankinson, became the bride of Ronald Lee Hilsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hilsen, Hopkins, MN. Rev. Otto Truog, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 3 PM.

Nuptial music was played by Walter Bahm of Sacramento, CA., a friend of the family. He also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Erling Haukness who sang "O Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer," with Miss Gloria Truog as the accompanist on the latter number.

Preceding the ceremony, the taper lighters, Barbara Kinn, friend of the couple and John Wipperman, brother of the bride, lit the candles. The altar and Chancel were decorated with baskets of white pompoms and Peter John mums. Baskets of white pompoms and Peter John mums with shrimp gladiolus flanked the Chancel. The bridal aisle was beautifully marked with white candles and satin bows, lemon leaves and pink carnations and a white aisle runner.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of silk organza, featuring a full bouffant skirt and short swept train. The fitted bodice featured a scoop neckline with a yoke of pearl studded venice lace. The skirt was trimmed with side poufs caught up with lace motifs.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was combined with her mother's veil of Belgian lace, was held in place with a sequin crown. Her jewelry was a cultured necklace and matching earrings, gifts from the groom. She carried her mother's pearl covered Bible with pink Elf roses. The bouquet was surrounded by pearl cloverleaves, with strings of pearls falling from the center. White pearl hearts accented the central roses.

Miss Mary Beth Wipperman, sister of the bride, was Maid of Honor and Saundra Tallakson, Minneapolis, friend and classmate of the bride, was Bridesmaid. Barbara Kinn was Junior Bridesmaid. They wore identical ballerina length gowns of shrimp chiffon with velvet fitted bodice and shrimp velvet tiara's with short veil and white gloves. They each carried bouquets of white butterfly roses accented by ivy with pearl streamers. Pink pearl hearts dotted the roses. They wore pearl chokers and earrings, gifts of the bride.

The Bestman was a friend of the groom, Robert Ronning, Minneapolis. Groomsman was Max Alan Wipperman, brother of the bride. John Wipperman, also a brother of the bride, was Junior Attendant. Ushers were: Paul Kinn and Richard Haukness, of Hankinson, friends of the bride. They wore tuxedos with white dinner jackets. The groom's boutonniere was a white rose. The other attendants had white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a light blue brocaded dress with light blue accessories. The mother of the groom wore a rose beige dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses and white carnations. Marie Schiltz, close friend of the family, was presented with a pink and white corsage.

After the ceremony a wedding reception and buffet supper was given by the bride's parents at their home on Lake Elsie.

The bride's table was covered with white linens with a nylon skirt dotted with pink bows and ribbons. The two silver candlelabra's and their white pompoms were joined to two other bouquets of white pompoms by streamers of huckelberry and white pompoms.

The buffet table was similiarly decorated. Other white bouquets were used to accent the setting of the beautiful lake home and its view. Over 200 guests were present at the reception.

The beautiful 4 tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and pink bells, was cut and served by sisters of the groom, Shirley Hilsen and Mrs. Arno Weniger of Minneapolis. Hilda Dahl and Mrs. K. Larson, aunts of the bride, poured at the buffet table. Judy Willert and Nancy Kinn were waitresses at the bride's table. Other waitresses were: Diane Buck, Diane Medenwaldt, Norma Gabbert, Sharon and Marlene Sander and Jean Truog. Hostesses were Mrs. Elroy Kinn, Mrs. Casper Kitzman, Mrs. Erling Haukness, Mrs. Arnold Maas and Mrs. F. B. Schleinitz. Presiding at the gift table were: Mrs. Dale Medenwaldt, Mrs. Gale Gabel and Ruth Tveite. Charlene Wilkins of Minneapolis had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Darrel Manske and Patty Brandt served the punch.

The ladies who served, opened the gifts, and hostesses were presented with corsages of pink carnations. The waitresses received shrimp organdy aprons.

The kitchen workers were: Mrs. Gust Medenwaldt, Mrs. Aug. Medenwaldt, Mrs. Clemens Buck and Mrs. Mary Sander.

The bride is a graduate of Hankinson High School and the Fairview Hospital School of Nursing, Minneapolis. The groom is a graduate of Malcalester College, St. Paul and is now a post graduate student at the Minnesota University. He is also teaching in the Minneapolis school system.

FAIRMOUNT SERVICEMAN WED

Miss Caroline Meredith Turrentine became the bride of Lt. Karl Holger Bertelsen in a four o'clock ceremony Saturday, Sept. 26th, 1959, at Grace Methodist Church at Springfield, MO. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Douglas Turrentine, Springfield, MO., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Holger Bertelsen of Fairmount.

The Rev. Clarence P. Folkins performed the double ring ceremony before an altar enhanced with mounds of chamaedorea foliage and tall white tapers. A fan shaped arrangement of emerald formed a background for the altar cross and floor baskets held arrangements of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums. White satin bows marked the pews.

Miss Ilah Dixon, organist, played selected wedding music and accompanied Russell Newport as he sang "Because," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer." Howard Thurman and Lon Burgin lit the candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Chantilly lace gown of floor length which ended in a chapel train. The basque bodice was designed with an empire waistline and elbow length shadowy sleeves. The neckline was embroidered in seed pearls. Her Juliet cap of lace secured a fingertip veil of white bridal illusion and she carried a modified cascade bouquet of white butterfly roses and glamelias enhanced with showers of stephanotis and pearl orange blossoms.

Miss Ann Lindsey, maid of honor, was attired in a full skirted dress of royal blue silk organza designed with a fitted bodice. She wore matching shoes and bandeau, and carried a crescent bouquet of lavender and purple asters with delphinium blue pompoms.

Charles T. Bertelsen, Fairmount, was his brother's bestman and ushers were Lt. Donald Guettler, Memphis, TN., Lon Burgin, Lt. Don Smith and Howard Thurman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Turrentine chose a beige silk sheath with matching jacket. Her accessories were dark brown and her hat was of dark brown velvet flowers. She wore a corsage of beige fuji mums. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Bertelsen, wore a blue silk sheath and her corsage was of beige fuji mums.

A reception in the church lounge followed the ceremony. The bride's table, draped in white, featured a tall mound arrangement of white carnations, stock and mums with accents of lavender and blue. Antique silver holders held white tapers, and the 3 tiered wedding cake and punch bowl were encircled with Baker's fern. Mints and fruit punch were served with the cake by Mesdames Lon Burgin, Howard MacThurman, San Squires and Charles Bertelsen and Miss Beverly Carver. Miss Elizabeth Thompson resided at the guest book.

For traveling the new Mrs. Bertelsen selected a Dior blue wool suit with matching blue hat and black accessories. After Oct. 14th, the couple will be home at 3223 Thomas St. # 3, Memphis. TN.

J. DALUGE BRIDE of D. WEST

Miss Janice Daluge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Borst of Big Lake, MN., became the bride of Dennis West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth West, Fairmount, at a ceremony which took place Friday afternoon at 2:30, Nov. 6th, 1959, at the First English Lutheran Church at Fairmount. Rev. Elton Temme officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The organist was Miss Diane Flaten who played the traditonal wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Merrill Griggs, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her step-father, John Borst. She wore a beige lace dress over taffeta with full skirt and three quarter length sleeves, Her jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, gifts of the bridegroom. She wore a corsage of red roses and wore a brown feather hat.

Miss Linda Miller, friend of the bride was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Elizabeth Rossow of Campbell, MN., cousin of the bridegroom. Both wore identical light green sheath dresses and each had a corsage of rust colored mums. They each had a headband of white fur.

Eugene Marquardt of Wheaton, MN., friend of the groom, was bestman. Groomsman was the bridegrooms brother, LaVerne West. The groom's brother, Gary West, was usher. The men had white carnation boutonnières.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Borst wore a blue sheath dress with matching jacket and wore a blue stone necklace with matching earrings. The groom's mother, Mrs. West, wore a blue floral dress and had rhinestone necklace and earrings. Each had a corsage of white mums.

After the ceremony a reception given by the parents of the couple followed in the church parlors. The table centerpiece was a four tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was decorated in white with red roses. The cake was cut and served by the groom's sister, Mrs. Gerald Bladow. Virginia Leinen and Mrs. Eugene Marquardt had charge of the gift table. Circle number three of the Lutheran Ladies Aid assisted with the serving at the reception.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Fort Worth, TX., Wendell, Fergus Fall, Big Lake, Campbell, Nashua, Tenney and Wheaton, MN. The couple are residing at an upstairs apartment at the Martin Moeller home.
